WITH ANITA BEAUMONT

HAMISH AND ANDY RE-GIFTED

Southern Cross Ten, 7.30pm
APPARENTLY we can't get enough of Hamish Blake and Andy Lee (pictured).

Hence this "special presentation" featuring some never-before-seen footage of their antics on Rove.

It is presented from Andy's mum's backyard.

Chances are this will be a cack, simply because Blake is genuinely funny and quick-witted.

A WELL-FOUNDED FEAR

SBS, 8.30pm

THOUSANDS of people flee their homelands each year to escape war and persecution.

Those who make it to Australia end up in detention centres while their claims for asylum are processed, which can take months, if not years.

The Australian Government sends back asylum seekers it doesn't think are refugees, or who can't prove they have "a well-founded fear" for their safety.

Like many countries that deport asylum seekers, Australia does not monitor what happens to the people it sends back.

This gripping, disturbing film follows the director of a small social justice centre as he searches for rejected asylum seekers. Phil Glendenning and his colleagues have tracked down more than 250 returnees in 22 countries.

CRIMINAL MINDS

Prime, 8.30pm

A YOUNG boy is kidnapped in Las Vegas, leading Dr Spencer Reid to discover some buried memories from his childhood.
