

TV Week
15/11/2008
 Page: 71
 General News Region: National Circulation: 262062
 Type: Magazines Lifestyle
 Size: 293.27 sq.cms
 M-----

PICK OF THE DAY

comedy Hamish & Andy Re-Gifted, Ten. Ensclosed in Andy's mum's backyard, Hamish (above left) and Andy present a wrap-up of all the crazy antics they got up to on Rove this year. From tasting animal anatomy in Beijing to towing the "Caravan Of Courage" from Adelaide to Darwin, the boys pulled off some serious hijinks. It also includes never-before-seen footage of the pair, who last month topped the ratings as Australia's favourite radio duo.

crime CSI: NY, Nine. The dark, gritty photography used in this police procedural makes New York City one of the stars of the show. The technique is used to good effect tonight when detectives Mac (Gary Sinise) and Stella (Melina Kanakaredes) investigate the mysterious death of a woman at a rock concert. Watch out for an appearance by band Maroon 5.

kids It's Academic, Seven. Based on an American concept, the Aussie version of It's Academic has been around in a variety of guises since 1968, with hosts including Dan Webb and Sandy Roberts. Guiding the kids through the maze of questions these days is Sunrise reporter Simon Reeve. Forty years on, this educational kids' show is still a winner.

doco A Well-Founded Fear, SBS. This moving doco follows the work of a group of dedicated Australians who locate asylum seekers that the government rejected. For five years, Phil Glendenning and his colleagues have travelled the globe and tracked down 250 returnees in 22 countries. Thought-provoking and quite disturbing, it'll make you grateful to be an Australian.

wednesday